INSTRUCTIONS

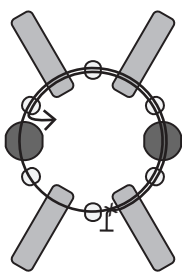

Note: The instructions follow the pink sample. This versatile pattern can accommodate small changes to bead sizes and counts, as shown in the gold sample's use of size 11° seed beads and 2mm rounds.

- On 3yd of thread, add A, B, D, B, A, B; repeat one more time, leaving a 12" tail. Tie a knot against the tail to form a ring. Pass through the first eight beads.
- Add three C, B; pass through the open hole of the nearest A. Add B, D, B; pass through the open hole of the next A. Add B, three C; pass through the second B of the previous step and weave through to exit the D added in this step. Note: For pointy picots, repeat the thread path of this entire step and Step 3, skipping the center C of each picot (not shown).
- Add B, A, B, three C, B, then pass through the open hole of the last A added; repeat one more time. Add B; pass through the D exited at the beginning of this step and weave through to exit the fifth B added in this step.
- Add D, B, A, B, A, B, D; pass through the third B added in the previous step and weave through to exit the third B added in this step.
Repeat Steps 2-4 for the desired length. Repeat Step 2 again.
- Clasp 1: Add B, nine C, B; pass through the D exited at the beginning of this step. Repeat the thread path several times (not shown) and tie off the working thread.
- Clasp 2: Pass the tail thread through the last B, A, B added in Step 1. Repeat Steps 2 and 5 (not shown). Tie off. Use jump rings to attach the clasp to the C loops at each end (not shown).
